Dear Customer

Koller Engineering Ltd have welcomed Puwertec Ltd to provide professional auditing of our safety equipment.

With safety being our main aim, we believe correct training, regular inspections and maintenance of our equipment is essential to ensure the required standard of safety.

Given Puwertec's proven track record of operating within this industry, Koller Engineering Ltd are pleased to have them provide this important after care service to our customers.

Puwertec is an independent organisation and will be fully responsible for information, advice and services they provide, whilst taking into account Koller Engineering's company policy.

Therefore if you would like to enhance safety for those involved in using our equipment, please contact Puwertec as an independent audit for your occupant and wheelchair restraints.

Yours truly,
